2017 Lay Readers' Schedule for Traditional (10:30a) Service

The Worship/Music Committee has set the following guidelines for the various duties/services needed during the Sunday morning worship service.

First of all, practice. Read through the prayers and the scriptures before Sunday. Make sure you are comfortable with what you will be reading. Feel free to give the pastor a call if you have any questions.

Remember, you are leading the people of God in worship. Therefore, both you and the pastor need to project your voices and speak with energy and enthusiasm. If you want the congregation to be excited about worshiping God, you need to be excited too.

If you have any questions, please speak with the pastor.

The Worship/Music Committee developed this schedule based upon the responses to the Time & Talent sheets. If you are unable to serve on an assigned date, please secure a substitute or trade with someone, and please let the church office know of the change so the bulletin may reflect the change. Thank you very much for your participation and willingness to serve.

The Worship/Music Committee has set the following guidelines for the various duties/services needed during the Sunday morning worship service.

Before you go down the aisle, you should be dressed in a white robe and hang the acolyte pendant around your neck. You need to be ready at 10:25 a.m. An usher will help you with the robe, if needed, and light the candle lighter for you.

When the prelude (organ music) begins, walk down the middle aisle to the pulpit (where the pastor stands) and light the two candles on the table in front. Blow out the lighter and return to the back of the sanctuary. Remove your robe and pendant, and go sit with your family in the sanctuary.

Toward the end of the service, be ready to come back in when the usher comes for you. Put your robe and pendant back on. The usher will tell you when to go down the aisle again, usually on the last verse of the final hymn. Light the candle lighter from one of the front candles and then snuff out both candles. (Remember, you are taking "the Light out into the world"). Wait at the table until the pastor comes down, and leave the sanctuary with the pastor.

Before leaving, take off your robe and pendant, and lay them on the table in the conference room.
